

Jan Baekelandt CV summary in bullet points

Professional

MD, PhD

Jan Baekelandt trained as gynaecologic oncologic surgeon in Belgium, Germany and South-Africa.

He currently consults at Imelda Hospital (Bonheiden, Belgium), specializing in gynaecological oncology, and minimally invasive surgery.

He is a consultant at Leuven University Hospital, department of obstetrics and gynaecology and is a researcher at the Catholic University of Leuven, department of development and regeneration in urogenital, abdominal and plastic surgery.

He also has a research affiliation with Lund University in Sweden.

He is a pioneer in vNOTES.

He developed and standardized many vNOTES operations.

He is the most published peer reviewed author on vNOTES

President of International NOTES Society (iNOTESs)

Performed more than 200 live surgeries broadcasted for congresses and courses

Personal

Proud father of 3 children

Bass player in band Knife and Needles

10th place World Championship Double Ironman Triathlon Lithuania 2005

Founder of Greyhounds Basketball Team for Dads

Founding member and treasurer of Village Scribe Association non-profit